

L2 INTERACTIONAL COMPETENCE AND DEVELOPMENT

Edited by Joan Kelly Hall (Pennsylvania State University), John Hellermann
(Portland State University) and Simona Pekarek Doehler (Université de Neuchâtel)

Hall et al have advanced our understanding of second language learning with this timely collection. Contributors demonstrate the importance of interactional competence and they show how it develops through embodied participation in multi-party interaction. This collection provides a comprehensive account of one of most exciting developments in second language learning and teaching.

Richard F Young, Professor of English Linguistics and Second Language Acquisition at the University of Wisconsin-Madison

Description

This unique volume draws on the theoretical framework and methodological tools of conversation analysis to examine interactional competence and its development as it occurs in a range of interactional practices, from a variety of contexts, and in a variety of second languages.
